Inquiries continue on family home gun raid

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@lindlenews.co.uk

POLICE in Honiton say they are continuing to investigate an attempted armed raid that left three people needing hospital treatment.

As previously reported in Pulman's View, the incident took place on Sunday, January 9th, at approximately 7pm in the Rosemount Lane area of Honiton.

According to police reports at the time, armed intruders burst into the Taylor family home equipped with what is believed to be handguns and a knife.

Officers investigating the case have confirmed that the offenders left the scene empty handed when challenged by one of the occupants.

The failed raid left David Taylor and his wife Jenny needing hospital treatment. Their son Gary was also hospitalised with minor knife wounds.

In the latest update a spokesman for Devon and Cornwall Police confirmed that the enquiry was ongoing.

She said: "No arrests have been made at this time but enquiries are continuing."

Details of the offenders have been described as 'limited' by police and they have only confirmed that two men were involved in the raid.

DI Sally Crabtree is leading the investigation and in a statement issued a few days after the incident she said: "This is a protracted enquiry and it is still very early in the investigation. We would like to appeal to anyone who has information or saw something unusual around the time of the incident to contact us.

"Local police are making additional high visibility patrols in the area and there is nothing to suggest local residents should stop doing what they would normally do. This is thought to be an isolated incident which is very unusual for east Devon.

"I would urge local people to go about their normal daily business but remain vigilant and report anything unusual to us straight away."

Anyone with information about the incident is asked to contact police on 08452 777444 quoting police reference number 118 100111. Alternatively call Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Witness bid continues in damage case

POLICE in Ottery St Mary are continuing to appeal for witnesses after two cars parked in the town were damaged.

As previously reported in Pulman's View, the cars were parked in the car park at Canaan Way.

According to police the damage took place sometime between 7.30pm on Wednesday, February 23rd, and 6am on Thursday, February 24th.

A spokesman for Ottery police said: "Police in Ottery St Mary are appealing for witnesses to extensive damage that was caused to two vehicles parked in Canaan Way.

"Both vehicles had their rear windscreens smashed and one had the front windscreen shattered as well. Both vehicles were then searched and the doors left open.

"Large lumps of timber were left at the scene and may have been used to cause the damage. This would have been noisy and taken some time.

"Also over the same night damage was caused to a vehicle parked on Longdogs Lane. Here the mudguard and nearside door were damaged. Again, a lump of wood was located at the scene and appears to have been used to cause the damage."

Anyone with information about the incidents should contact Ottery police on 08452 777444 quoting crime number KO/11/107. Alternatively contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Green light for nine affordable bungalows

No objections to village plans as need is 'proven'

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@indienews.co.uk

PLANS to build nine affordable bungalows in an area of Dunkeswell have been given the go-ahead.

The application was submitted by WIMS UK Ltd and will see the bungalows built on land north of Powells Way.

Dunkeswell Parish Council has praised the plan and a spokesman added: "There are no objections as the need is proven. This (development) must be tied to applicants who have a strong local connection to the ward."

However, the Highways Authority had originally recommended refusal for the proposal but has since changed its decision.

A spokesman said: "The Highway Authority has received an amended plan which successfully shows revised details regarding access widths, off street vehicle parking and on site turning and refuse collection points."

A spokesman for Preliminary Planning Professionals, the agent acting on behalf of WIMS UK Ltd, added: "The proposal will have regard to sustainable construction and appropriate energy conservation measures will be incorporated. The bungalows proposed match the style and character of what has been built in the immediate surrounding area.

"Two daily bus services are available to serve the village with stops being available in Highfield Road close to its junction with Louis Way and opposite Potters Stile. The site is therefore in a sustainable position in relation to its proximity to other modes of transport.

"Access for the development is directly from Powells Way via three separate access points. Each of which will lead to parking and turning facilities for three bungalows."

Police seek information

POLICE in Ottery St Mary are appealing for witnesses after a Citroen was damaged while it was parked in the town.

The maroon coloured car was parked in Winters Lane and the damage is believed to have taken place sometime between 5pm on Friday, February 25th, and 12.50pm on Saturday, February 26th.

Anyone with information should contact Ottery police on 08452 777444 quoting crime number KO/11/116.

Crews attend car blaze call

FIRE crews from Honiton were called to reports of a car fire on the A30 westbound, close to the Turks Head junction, on Saturday, March 5th.

The incident took place at approximately 2.45pm and on arrival at the scene crews confirmed a small fire in the engine compartment of a car.

The fire was out on arrival and the cause is believed to be accidental.

Dozens expected at extraordinary meet

DOZENS of Honiton residents were expected to attend an extraordinary Honiton Town Council meeting as this newspaper went to press last night (Monday).

The meeting has been called to discuss the latest proposals for the Honiton Community Complex.

As previously reported in Pulman's View, East Devon District Council (EDDC) has revealed that the car park next to the soon to be redundant Magistrates' Court in Dowell Street is now the preferred site for the building.

EDDC has set aside just over £800,000 in funding for the project and Honiton Town Council will still have to borrow almost £1million to complete the build.

Prior to last night's meeting a briefing paper was sent out to councillors.

The paper highlighted three options that are available to the town council for the possible redevelopment of the car park at the Magistrates' Court.

One of the options is to build the centre at the original cost of £1.812 million.

Two cheaper options have also been put forward.

Meet stopped

A PUBLIC meeting never got out of the starting blocks as a gamble on attendance failed.

Axminster Town Council called a meeting for Wednesday, March 2nd to discuss matters relating to Axminster Carpets' planning application for Cloakham Lawn.

But a bumper crowd proved too big for the Churchill Room upstairs in the guildhall.

Fire regulations dictate that the room can hold 60 people in total, which proved inadequate on this occasion. When the meeting was about to start, all seats were taken and people were standing.

Mayor Ron Jones explained the situation and also said the council had looked at alternative venues without success, indicating a big crowd had been expected. He politely asked those without a chair to leave, which didn't prove popular.

After deliberation with fellow councillors, mayor Jones announced the meeting would instead be postponed and rescheduled for Monday, March 14th downstairs.

The guildhall's designated premises supervisor, John Jeffery, who is also a town councillor, told Pulman's View: "In fairness to the council, nobody is trying to be awkward. We have to work within the licence." He added that staging the meeting with more people than permitted could have had serious consequences.

Apart from putting people in danger had there been a fire, the guildhall could also be forcibly shut down for breach of licence.

Axminster Carpets has outline planning permission (subject to successful Section 106 negotiations) for up to 400 dwellings and up to 12,000 sq ft of employment space at Cloakham Lawn. But pressure group Save Our Parkland has asked for town council support in mounting a legal challenge against East Devon District Council's planning decision-making process.

Baptist church aims for another meeting

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@indlenews.co.uk

KILMINGTON Baptist Church pastor Darrell Holmes says the church is aiming to stage another public meeting for further comment on its controversial planning application, on a date to be decided.

Pastor Holmes also says "minor amendments" are being made to the application, but there will be no withdrawal.

The church would, for example, be happy to use an existing entrance to the site rather than the proposed one further down George Lane if the highways department agrees.

As previously reported, Kilmington Parish Council recommended refusal for plans to build a church on the corner of the A35 and George Lane, the main concerns being traffic-related issues and the size of the proposed building.

But following the parish council's recommendation, one of the church's leaders - deacon Christopher H Hill - has asked for "a bit of common sense" to be applied in the debate.

The plea was made in a letter, dated February 23rd, to East Devon District Council, which will decide on the planning application in due course.

Mr Hill wrote: "As I understand it, the decision was largely based on the large number of people that were going to meet in our new building and the large amount of traffic that this would generate at the junction of George Lane and the A35, and there are two points I would like to make about this."

He explained, for example, that recent counts of the number of cars arriving for services in the village hall (which has been used since the church's chapel was destroyed by fire) show that the congregation arrives in just under 30 cars, making the average number of people per car three.

The planning application features a car park with about 35 spaces, and Mr Hill wrote: "When we were in our old building, we only had parking available for six cars, thus over 20 cars were parked in Shute Road."

He did predict some growth of the congregation and added: "When that happens we need to have a building which would provide adequate space."

"Certainly there would then be a bit more traffic perhaps, at most, another 10 cars."

He also stressed that church members do not leave en-masse, which means there would not be a build up of traffic at the junction.

On the issue of George Lane's alleged unsuitability for traffic, he wrote: "It is a fact that very few cars would go down George Lane into the village, the bulk of traffic entering/leaving our site would be turning in from or out to the A35."

"If the position of the entrance drawn on the plans was thought to be too far down George Lane we could avail ourselves of the existing entrance to the field which is just at the end of the splay from the war memorial."

"This, of course, would be subject to agreement from the Highways Department."

It has been claimed that only 19 people from Kilmington attend the church and that there is no need for a church with a 150-seat auditorium.

Mr Hill explained that the church acts as a hub for people living in Axe Valley, and added: "Or are we to be forced to live in a place in order to enter a public building in that place?" "In which case not only Kilmington Baptist Church but probably the Anglicans and certainly both pubs and the village hall would have to close down through lack of patronage."

"I am sorry to go on for so long but I felt a bit of common sense was needed with regard to the comments on our plans."

Parish plan is launched

AXMOUTH residents have launched their parish plan.

The plan was launched in Axmouth Village Hall on Saturday, March 5th.

Plan chairman Jon Underwood said: "We have a national nature reserve, part of the Jurassic Coast, the Axe Estuary plus a dozen locally important sites. There's a lot here we all want to look after."

"The plan team has made a giant commemorative cake, featuring the plan's logo, which will be cut by two village maidens. We will then share it out, and wash it down with several cases of local sparkling cider."

According to Mr Underwood the plan looks at issues affecting the village including HGV traffic, provisions for younger people, the natural and built environment and how to encourage local business.

Marchers at council HQ

AN east Devon campaign group is set to march on East Devon District Council (EDDC) headquarters for a second time.

Communities Before Developers will be marching on the Sidmouth base of the district council on Tuesday, March 15th, before the council holds a Special Development Management meeting to debate the Local Development Framework.

The march will take place at 1.30pm and the meeting will take place at 2pm.

Youth activist praises town council for new funds

A SEATON youth activist has praised the town council for ringfencing money that will be used on youth projects in the town.

As previously reported in Pulman's View, Sophie O'Connell said she was concerned that the money could be spent on other initiatives within the town.

Earlier this year she launched a petition and lobbied the town council to ensure the money was kept aside and only spent on youth projects.

Her campaign was successful and speaking to this newspaper Miss O'Connell, who is also a member of Seaton Town Council, said: "I am so relieved and grateful that Seaton Town Council has agreed to continue its support of Seaton's young people by keeping the funding already saved, as well as raising another £32,500 to go into the youth fund, which will now total over £62,000."

"In total there were 315 signatures and 24 emails (signing the petition), which were absolutely fundamental in asking Seaton Town Council to continue asking for just £10 per household, per year, to build up a ringfenced fund for dedicated youth facilities."

"I really want to thank everyone who has taken the time to email or sign the petition, I feel very privileged to live in a town where despite all of its recent troubles, has united to support the most vulnerable members of its community."

VOTES FOR WOMEN

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@indienews.co.uk

A PROSPECTIVE Honiton MP is calling for more women to stand in the local elections on Thursday, May 5th.

Sharon Pavey, of the East Devon Green Party, has launched a campaign to get more women involved with the local politics scene.

Speaking to Pulman's View she said: "There are only 15 women on East Devon District Council, a council made up of 59 elected representatives at the Knowle.

"This is absolutely ridiculous in this day and age. We all know that women do so much in our communities — running their own businesses, organising school PTAs, committees, local churches and fundraising initiatives but why are they not putting themselves forward as councillors?"

"Perhaps, like myself, women are busy multi-tasking looking after their home, children and working. I'm very lucky to have a supportive husband and a wonderful extended family here in Honiton who enable me to contribute to my community, but it can be a struggle."

The Green Party candidate is also urging women to stand for election to Honiton Town Council.

She added: "Surely a healthy balanced council is made up of representatives from all parties, representatives from across our community, with different backgrounds and experiences in all walks of life."

A spokesman for the town council said: "Honiton Town Council has been running a campaign to make residents more aware of the importance of voting at the May elections - and also of standing for council."

"The town council as a whole has always been well served by woman councillors, although it is true that most of these stand in St Paul's ward. Many people appear to think that they would not be able to do the job as they have no experience or relevant skills."

"However, the main thing you can bring to the town council is your enthusiasm for Honiton and your wish to see the town well served and able to prosper."

GILES LAUNCHES YES TO A FAIRER VOTE CAMPAIGN

INDEPENDENT east Devon councillor Roger Giles, is launching the Yes to Fairer Votes campaign in Honiton on Thursday, March 10th.

The event will take place at 7.30pm at Montgomery's Hotel, High Street, and supporters of the Yes vote in the referendum on electoral reform, that takes place on Thursday, May 5th, are invited to attend the meeting.

Mr Giles said: "We need to change our electoral system in the UK. First past the post no longer works. It is outdated and suited to the days of two dominant parties.

"Politics in the UK is changing and I am keen to find others who agree that we must have a fairer and more representative system. If you want to find out more about the alternative vote system and about the referendum, come to the meeting."

Mr Giles added: "Two-thirds of MPs were elected on less than 50 per cent of the vote in the general election in 2010. Too many MPs do not have the support of the majority of their constituents.

"The alternative vote is straightforward for voters and for counting votes. It gives the voter the opportunity to show preferences, and, unlike first past the post, it's an electoral system in which every vote counts."

Spring has sprung at new build properties

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

SPRING bulbs were planted at Waggs Plot, near Axminster, to celebrate the official opening and occupation of four new council properties.

The properties at Waggs Plot, and a further two flats at Heals Field in Axminster, are the latest homes to be built as part of an affordable homes programme by East Devon District Council (EDDC).

The project has materialised because of a successful bid by EDDC's Housing Strategy Unit for Homes and Communities Agency (HCA) funding.

An EDDC spokesperson said: "The funding from the HCA, combined with prudential borrowing by the council, means that 17 new homes are due to be completed in Axminster, Exmouth and Lymington by the end of March.

"This is part of a continuing programme by the council's Housing Service to provide affordable homes in east Devon."

The bulb planting ceremony was followed by a Devon cream tea, sponsored by R G Spiller Limited, at Millwey Community Centre.

OTTERY St Mary parish church will be the venue for a cafe-style church event on the second Sunday of every month.

The first church cafe took place on Sunday, February 13th, and the organisers are hoping it will encourage people to visit the church.

Reverend Simon Franklin, of the parish church, said: "Sometimes it can be quite daunting entering a church for a service of any type, especially if you don't know what is expected of you.

"Cafe church stands for Church Accessible For Everyone, and the aim of this service is to welcome church and non church goers alike to join together around tables enjoying good coffee and pastries, and to have the opportunity to discuss life issues in a Christian context.

Cafe-style church event to encourage visitors

"It will be a very informal gathering with quiet time for reflection and the opportunity to listen to and engage in thought provoking discussions in a safe environment. For children there will be a creche and group activities."

Topics planned for future church cafe sessions include money management, bereavement, parenting and family life, faith and staying healthy.

Guest speakers will also be in attendance during many of the discussions that start at 11am.

Second airport cash boost for woodland trust

By ANDERS LARSSON
anderson@indlenews.co.uk

THE users of an international airport have contributed to another bumper cheque for Offwell Woodland and Wildlife Trust.

Exeter International Airport operates an online parking reservation scheme which supports the trust.

A cheque was presented in September last year and came to £4,000, which was recently followed up by a £3,630 'instalment'.

Stephen Ayres, the airport's communications manager, presented the cheque and was brought up to date with the trust's activities.

Dougal Syers, education and conservation manager at the trust's woodland education centre at Offwell, said: "The financial support of Exeter International Airport is of vital importance to the work of the trust, and helps us to carefully maintain our wide range of natural habitats on our 50-acre nature reserve.

"These habitats are home to a wide variety of fascinating British wildlife, including rare water voles, dormice and ruddy darter dragonflies.

"The centre also supports thousands of breeding amphibians, hundreds of moth species and a number of endangered bats."

Mr Ayres commented: "As well as the wonderful field work we are pleased that our friends at Offwell are developing their educational side and a new website.

"The airport's customers can continue to help the charity by using the official airport online car park service.

"A £1 donation will be made to Offwell Woodland and Wildlife Trust for each online booking and there is a 30 per cent discount on the gate price."

Those interested in getting involved with the trust and its work can contact Dougal Syers for more information on 01404 831881 or by emailing offwell1@aol.com.

Villages call for support

BLACKDOWN Hills residents are being urged to come out and support a number of Villages in Action shows being staged at Clayhidon Parish Hall.

A one woman show by Bec Applebee will take place at the hall on Friday, March 11th, at 7.30pm, and this will be followed by an improvised comedy by Kevin Tomlinson on Wednesday, April 6th, at 7.30pm.

Organiser of the events Bee Hill said: "Last year many residents of the Blackdown Hills lobbied Mid Devon District Council and Devon County Council in support of the Villages in Action scheme, at a time when cuts in grant funding were being discussed.

"They argued that these events not only enriched community life but also helped to raise essential funds for village resources, enabling us to maintain and develop services for the relatively isolated population.

"Last year's four Villages in Action performances in Clayhidon raised nearly £2,000 for hall funds enabling us to fund a complete redecoration project, to insulate the hall and to contribute to the full set of upholstered chairs that were recently bought. These improvements make the facility more comfortable, more economical to run and a more popular venue for social events such as community meals, recreational classes and community clubs."

Tickets for both shows cost £6.50 for adults and £4.50 for concessions. A family ticket costs £20. To book tickets call 01823 680347 or email beehill@hotmail.co.uk.

A licensed wine and cider bar will be available along with refreshments and a fundraising raffle will also take place.

A WELL-KNOWN Axminster man — who says he was caned and called a dimwit because of his dyslexia — has set up a charity to help youngsters.

Douglas Hull is well-known in and around the town for his involvement with local politics and various local organisations.

He is now adding another string to his bow by being the founder of DRH Dyslexia Fund.

DRH stands for Douglas Ruben Henry, and the aim of the fund is to help ensure that young people with dyslexia don't have to suffer as much as he did throughout his childhood and teenage years.

His dyslexia is not a secret, but it was only in spring 2008 that it became public knowledge.

The revelation was made by then fellow county councillor Margaret Rogers during the Devon County Council vice-chairmanship nomination process.

During an interview with Pulman's Weekly News in July 2008, Mr Hull outlined plans for the fund and needed a brief moment to compose himself before saying about his dyslexia: "Nobody knew anything about it when I was young.

"You were just classified as a dimwit.

"I have fought in different ways to overcome my problems. I have kept it hidden but I owe it to the children that I should talk about it.

"Why should they suffer like I did? It's been hell."

He also says he was caned by the headmaster at senior school because of spelling problems.

Ironically, the cane was later donated to Axminster Museum; an organisation which is very close to his heart.

After leaving school, he managed to hold down a job which relied on his mathematical skills and didn't require many literacy skills and he kept his dyslexia a secret from most people for many years, getting by with the help of a few friends.

Hull's new fund for dyslexic youngsters

The fund has now become reality and although Mr Hull is the founder, he emphasises that it will be a case of teamwork - and not him dictating what and how things should be done.

He said: "It [the fund] is set up as a team, and it will not be a case of Douglas Hull saying we will spend the money here and there - decisions will be made as a team."

Apart from himself, the fund committee team consists of Martin Smith (headteacher at Axe Valley Community College), John Confrey (head of learning support at Axe Valley Community College), Malcolm Bettison (headteacher at Kilmington Primary School), Roger Grose (retired headteacher of Uplyme Primary School and now Axe Valley learning community administrator), Fred Wells (retired local businessman) and Jenny Fells (specialist dyslexia teacher).

A DRH Dyslexia Fund statement, issued by Jenny Fells, said: "Doug's story will be very familiar to many readers, who have either struggled with dyslexia themselves or have known of others who have.

"Dyslexia affects approximately 10 per cent of the population. Many of the dyslexic people across the UK, whether adults or children, are unable to fulfil their potential as the majority of the population still do not understand what dyslexia is, the difficulties which the condition presents and how best to support sufferers.

"Dyslexia is not an obvious difficulty; it is hidden.

"As a result, dyslexic people have to overcome numerous barriers to make a full contribution to society."

Famous dyslexics include Tom Cruise, Richard Branson and Cher to mention only a few.

Money Mr Hull made as a councillor has been put into the fund.

The feeder schools of Axe Valley Community College will have the opportunity to apply for financial assistance to cover training and resources for pupils struggling to gain basic literacy and numeracy skills.

For the purposes of charitable status, DRH Dyslexia Fund badly needs to build up its membership.

Life membership costs £1 and the fund committee would also be grateful to receive one-off donations, as well as legacies in order to boost the pooled money.

Tax can also be reclaimed from donations received from tax payers, thus enhancing the fund further.

To find out more about becoming a member, making a donation or applying for funds, contact fund secretary Lin Walkerdine on linwalkerdine@gmail.com or Mr Hull on 01297 33522.

MP sends letter of praise to shoe repairs business

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

AN east Devon business has been praised by Hugo Swire MP.

Bay Tree Shoe Repairs, Mill Street, Ottery St Mary, has been visited by the MP for the East Devon constituency on several occasions and the man in charge of the business has just received a letter of praise from Mr Swire.

Martin Farrant took on the shop just over a year ago and since then has expanded the business to include shoe repairs, key cutting, knife and scissor sharpening, engraving and watch battery fitting.

When Mr Swire was on the campaign trail in the run-up to last year's elections he visited the store and since then he has been back to have shoes repaired and to order an engraving for a family portrait.

In the letter Mr Swire said: "I wanted to write and congratulate you on how your business is doing in Ottery St Mary. It is always a pleasure coming into your shop where you offer a friendly and professional service and I am always delighted with the work you do for me.

"Yours is just the sort of business we need in east Devon and I do hope that it will be patronised by local people and others further afield."

Speaking about the letter Mr Farrant said: "It is just good to be recognised and it is obviously good for the business. But it is good for the town as well.

"It is nice to be seen as part of the community and it does give you job satisfaction as well.

"I am glad to be offering a worthwhile service."

Mr Farrant is now looking to expand the business even further and is on the lookout for people or businesses to act as agents for shoe repairs and some of the other services he offers.

He said: "I think this could be a good idea for people who can't get into Ottery but still want to use the shop.

"I would organise regular pick up and delivery on a weekly basis. Commission would of course be offered to anyone interested in my proposal."

For more information contact Mr Farrant on 01404 813088.

EAST Devon Business Forum (EDBF) says the proposed new Heart of the South West Local Enterprise Partnership (HSWLEP) must focus on rural areas as much as urban centres to deliver future economic growth and resilience.

EDBF has agreed to co-operate fully in the creation of an overarching, strategic HSWLEP Board for Devon and Somerset, Plymouth and Torbay and says it must be a priority to ensure the area is not left without a convincing, competent successor to the South West of England RDA for any length of time.

The government announced last year that regional development agencies were to be scrapped, and businesses and local authorities were invited to join forces to create local enterprise partnerships.

A proposed Heart of the South West LEP was first discussed in November 2010, and a draft prospectus was subsequently published.

In its formal response to the draft prospectus, EDBF says that the countryside provides a very real opportunity to improve both economic productivity and attract inward investment.

Rural focus is a must for scheme

But in order to realise the potential of our coastal and market towns and to develop more profitable land-based enterprise and tourism, the Heart of the South West needs a much improved communications infrastructure, both in terms of local transport networks and broadband connectivity, says the report.

It also stresses that another very serious barrier to economic growth is the disparity between average house prices and average earnings across large parts of Devon, Somerset, Torbay and Plymouth — an issue that has not, so far, been addressed in the draft prospectus.

Supacat, Otter Nurseries, Axminster Carpets and Crealy Park are among the east Devon businesses who say they experience very serious challenges recruiting staff due to the high cost of living in the area, according to EDBF.

EDBF points out that only by aligning appropriate new housing development with areas of employment growth, will the problem of housing provision and social structure be redressed. It says that the developments east of Exeter at Cranbrook, Exeter Science Park, Skypark, the Multimodal Freight Facility and Exeter Airport, must set a new standard and provide a model for the future.

The report says: "The HSWLEP must engage with and seek to co-ordinate the planning process to promote market led investment in business and residential infrastructure. With regards to the creation of the new HSWLEP Board, the EDBF is demanding a rigorous and transparent appointment process.

Mini Grizzly

Both of Saturday's races will begin on the Esplanade at the main Grizzly start/finish but will finish in Cliff Field Gardens where there will be a fete. You can walk up to the gardens from the bottom of Castle Hill. In the event of bad weather the fete will be moved to the town hall. The route is down the Esplanade, through the yacht club, up the prom to Fisherman's Gap where the 4K will return to the Esplanade for another lap, down to the beach for a bit, West Walk then up the Chine into Cliff Field Gardens. An interactive map of the route is available at MapMyRun. Entries to both junior races have closed. Check that you have a number for the correct race: 1-50 4K Junior Race and 51-150 2K Fun Run. Results will hopefully be produced on the afternoon but may not be available until the following Monday.

Pre-race Race prep

Parking should be free over the weekend for Grizzly competitors in East Devon District Council's car parks but check signs on the meters to confirm. That's the meters on the Esplanade, the big park on the east side of the Underfleet by the tramway, Orchard off Beer Road and a small one near Co-op but not the others next to this or Co-op itself. We will also have parking in the Riverside Industrial Units and hopefully overflow at St. Clare's College. Please follow parking marshals' instructions to help us get everyone parked up as quickly as possible and car share if you can. Overflow parking on the east side of Axmouth road alongside the river if absolutely necessary but take care there. Baggage storage will once again be at The Grove nightclub. Dress for the occasion. You could encounter surfaces from unyielding tarmac to very yielding mud and water. The weather can range from warm sun to driving sleet. It's showtime! Sunday's races will arguably be the toughest yet with much uneven terrain and lots of big hills, some steep and/or slippery, so you should run only if you are physically and medically fit to do so. Runners have been up to their waist in mud and water (we're not kidding) and the Grizzly may well take you longer than a road marathon.

Grizzle Tips

Be nice to the marshals since they're giving up their own time so you can enjoy the Grizzly experience. Keep to the marked route, especially where it goes around field edges, since many of them are not public rights of way and we are dependent upon the goodwill of local landowners for access.

Do not use any of the Grizzly course at other times unless you know it to be a public right of way. Anyone wilfully littering risks disqualification - marshals should have carrier bags so hang on to your gel sachets, drink bottles, sweet wrappers, etc. until you reach the next one. If you would like to remember someone, something or a special occasion you can bring a ribbon to tie to the memorial at 12 miles.

The course - The course

The Grizzly and Cub Run will start together in the usual place near the western end of the Esplanade at 10:30. The Cub won't merge in from the beach as it did last year. The Grizzly will be 20 miles and the Cub Run 8-12 miles. (Note that these are Grizzly Miles whose relationship to Statute Miles is variable!) There will be eight water stations on the Grizzly and three on the Cub Run. There will be some constrictions and you may be held briefly at road crossings to ease the flow of traffic. If there is a queue please be patient. Anyone disobeying marshals' instructions to stop will be disqualified and may be banned from future events. The Cub split will be at Branscombe Mouth. Anyone who switches from the Grizzly to the Cub Run en route will have their numbers marked and should appear in the Cub results but no guarantees.

There will be a number of Grizzly shortcut/cut-off points. Once there's a certain time gap between runners at these points everyone from then on will be shortcutted (earlier points only) or pulled from the race. Please respect the decision of backmarkers or marshals who implement this - it's not an easy call to make but there are limits to how long marshals can be expected to stand around. One of the marshals at a shortcut point last year commented "One or two at the back were a bit shirty at being short-cutted."

This is not acceptable and runners giving marshals lip risk disqualification or even banning from the event - you have been warned. The table below indicates the gaps and distance saved for each point. Note that these may change if weather conditions dictate. Runners will also be pulled if marshals at these points or backmarkers feel that they're not in a fit state to continue.

Distance	Gap	Shortcut Location
5 miles	3 min	11-Q miles Branscombe Mouth (divert onto Cub Run)
9-Q miles	5 min	1 mile Elverway Farm
11-Q miles	6 min	1-Q miles Locksey's Lane
14-Q miles	7 min	Pull out only Fountainhead
16 miles	8 min	Pull out only Branscombe Mouth
18 miles	9 min	Pull out only Beer Head

No dogs will be permitted on the course.

Post-race

Race to the post T-shirts (for survivors only) and various edible goodies can be collected past the finish line as usual - flapjacks from Honeybuns, recovery milkshake from For Goodness Shakes and bananas from Tesco. Seaton Firefighters will once again provide their popular hosedown service. There will be separate bins at the finish to for various types of rubbish for recycling. Massage will be upstairs in the town hall as usual but please ensure you've had a hose-down or wash your legs in the sea before going up there.

Results will be posted in Winston's and should be on our website by early evening. For a paper copy please ask at the info desk.

Trophies, hand crafted by Big Dave Braunton of Quicks Engineering, will be awarded in real time at the finish after each prizewinner crosses the line: Grizzly - first three male & female, Cub Run - first male & female under-22.

Spectators Spectacles
The best spectator points are:

0/20 miles - Start and finish from the Esplanade or on top of the Moridunum.

3/18 miles - Beer Head car park or near the Anchor Inn on the sea front.

5/16 miles - The Sea Shanty at Branscombe Mouth; paying car parks there and at Branscombe Village Hall about a mile inland.

6 miles - Branscombe Village Hall.

14-Q miles - The Fountain Head pub in Branscombe; very limited parking.

Much of the middle part of the course, including the bogs, is on private land and therefore inaccessible to spectators.

Allow plenty of time to drive anywhere around Beer or Branscombe since the roads are very narrow and become congested, particularly where the race route crosses them, and there will be some road closures and diversions in place.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

THE thoughts of many this week will be in the Middle East and New Zealand.

Whatever else nature brings us we do not, so far, suffer earthquake and the loss of life and buildings as they have done in Christchurch New Zealand, where our prayers are needed now.

The lands of the Bible are also undergoing turmoil and the prayers here should be for an end to violence, for honest and stable government, with grateful thanks for the work of the peacemakers.

Staying in those parts, the Diocese of Cyprus and the Gulf — linked with Exeter Diocese — is to be the first diocese in the Episcopal Church in Jerusalem and the Middle East to ordain a woman priest, which will occur later this year at Bahrain Cathedral, who will then serve in the Yemen. We recall also the Christian sailors murdered by Somali pirates in that area.

Former BBC producer Robbie Lane has set up a website, www.yourchurchinthenews.org, for churches about their publicity after becoming fed up with the 'bad news' stories about Christianity that often fill the media.

The site aims to help church folk see the local press as an ally in reaching out to the local community, rather than an enemy, and gives guidance on press releases and interviews.

Mr Lane says that the press are not 'anti-church', but that churches are either afraid of engaging with the media or are not savvy enough to make their voice heard.

Elizabeth Lynn writes that the Axminster Alternative Job Club has grown out of an initiative of Axminster Churches Together, but right from the start it planned to work in partnership with the community, and now only about half the volunteers are church-goers.

People from all walks of life, some of whom are themselves unemployed, have joined the team — all sharing a desire to offer a service to local job seekers.

In the past, the church was numerically strong and did not think to ask for help in its social ventures.

One of the benefits of the falling numbers in some churches today is that we have been forced into a more Christ-like model of humble dependence on others and in so doing we have discovered our dependence on God.

We end with our own press release. This is news that the Bishop of Exeter has made an appointment for the vacancy for a Rector at Colyton Benefice and its five churches.

This will be the Revd Hilary Dawson currently serving in the Nether Exe Team, who will join the Benefice on Monday, June 27th with a service in St Andrew's Church.

Details on the Honiton Deanery's website at www.honitondeanery.org.uk and at the Colyton website at www.colytonchurch.co.uk.

STAR LETTER WINS £10 VOUCHER

to spend at Archway Bookshop, Axminster
~ As chosen by Pulman's View ~

Be heard over the disability changes

EDITOR — The Coalition government decided that disabled people living in care homes should not be given, from 2012, the mobility allowance that allowed them to get out of the home they were living in.

Disabled organisations protested against this ruling and the government have given way a little and postponed the change to 2013.

I would like to tell you about a man that I know who currently receives this allowance and lives in a care home.

I will call him Stuart, not his real name.

He was born 50 years ago and from day one he has worn nappies — now he is an adult they are called pads — because he is doubly incontinent.

He is severely brain damaged, cannot speak, suffers from pica — he will eat anything, grass, earth — and he has epilepsy.

He is so disabled that he needs two people to keep an eye on him all and every day.

Curiously it is thought that he has only one pleasure in life that is riding in a vehicle, the home's minibus.

In it he sits content and relaxed.

I believe withdrawing the mobility allowance from Stuart and 80,000 other people who live in care homes is a dreadful idea.

If you agree with me, that it should not be withdrawn in 2013, then I urge you to write to protest to the Prime Minister in Downing Street and to your local MP.

Congratulations to Axmouth on your small Tesco victory

EDITOR — The good people of Axmouth are to be congratulated for the concessions they have wrung from Tesco restricting movements of juggernauts delivering building materials thundering through their pretty and ancient village.

However, their fight will never, ever be won.

You have only to think about the long-term operation of the Tesco development when it is up and running to see why.

Their plans include a petrol filling station in addition to the 5,996 sq m retail store.

The heavy goods vehicles and fuel tankers supplying this operation will have to come in and out of Seaton on a regular basis by some route.

I fear that the homes and buildings of Axmouth will be at risk for many years to come.

And we all know who allowed these plans to become reality.

They must be laughing up their sleeves at our naivety.

Panto success

EDITOR — Once again Seaton Panto surpassed themselves with their recent production of Ali Baba.

The choreography was fantastic as was the singing. The sets were outstanding as were the costumes.

There was plenty of humour especially from Sara Perry and Debbie Reynolds, also Val and Phil Christmas.

The magical incidents with a snake appearing from a basket and the coloured lights all added to the wonderful atmosphere of the show.

The well-known Sand Dance was well performed and received plenty of applause and laughs.

All in all an outstanding production. Congratulations to everyone involved.

I look forward to the next show.

Tip problems

EDITOR — I fully appreciate the cost of repairing our badly pot-holed roads and the obstacles to getting a huge job done.

However the lanes accessing the East Devon Recycling Tip have now become so badly pot-holed that it is almost impossible to avoid them.

What this state of affairs may lead to is making the recycling tip so inaccessible that people will stop using it and dispose of their recyclable waste in their land-fill bins instead.

This will compound the land-fill crisis even more.

Devon County Council should quickly address this problem.

Ladies brave cold weather

MEMBERS of Colyton Women's Institute braved the weather to attend the February meeting.

President Brenda Clark gave news of members who were not well and others who were not able to attend.

There was plenty to discuss, in particular the planned celebration for the Royal Wedding.

There would be a children's tea party in the afternoon, music and barbecue in the evening, and fireworks were planned.

Members were not in favour of the fireworks on several counts.

The group was pleased to have received a generous cheque from the carnival committee with regard to the various efforts towards this event.

Many other items were discussed before tea: walks, book club and craft meetings. More knitted jumpers and animals were ready to be sent to Zimbabwe.

The speaker, Sue Wakley-Stoyle, entitled her talk Sitting Pretty Exercise in a Chair and members did just that: lots of gentle exercises to help posture and general well-being.

They also joined in a dance sequence.

Barbara Fletcher gave the vote of thanks.

Some of the raffle prizes were gifts sent to the WI from their twinned WI in New Zealand. The competition for a Healthy Treat was won by Elizabeth Cochrane, with Barbara Clark second.

Flower of the month was won by Jean Underdown, with Barbara Clark second.

Group led through artist's vibrant abstract painting

BUBBLY, incredibly enthusiastic and energetic, Robin Grey led the Lyme Regis Art Group through the creation of one of his vibrant abstract paintings, although he claims that there is really no such thing as pure abstraction.

We all have a wealth of visual experiences to draw on when we embark on any new imaginative work and certainly, recollections of local fossils and thoughts of them falling down from the cliffs seemed to play a major role in the swirl of lines and shapes that grew under Robin's brush.

Born in 1942, his abstract works are internationally acclaimed but he is also the founder member and long-standing chairman of Issa-The Society of Speleological Art.

Robin is a keen caver and records his experiences with pictures in chalks and charcoal of the caves themselves and the cavers who explore them.

He is also a full time teacher and demonstrator, has been involved in theatrical and musical roles and has run a nightclub.

The Issa website makes fascinating reading.

Today he worked on 300lb Bockingford paper with acrylic paint and wax oil crayons.

Using an orange oil pastel, he drew a round shape that was then covered with Quinkink to create a textured resist effect.

From this, he laid down swathes of thick rich dioxadine purple in varying tones, creating swirls of colour.

He then dried off the paint, using the kind of heat gun usually used to strip paint, before adding bold shapes in lavender and then in a blinding Cadmium red and in Alizarin Crimson.

His favourite "crescent moon" shapes seemed to float in this sea of colour and Robin himself was very clearly excited by the vibrancy he was creating.

This was an unplanned picture but he was allowing each new shape to lead him into the next one to create a balance between the harmonious and the discordant colours.

As soon as the paint was dry, he carefully rubbed white wax crayon across the corner and put in pools of bright yellow between the shapes.

The wax was then polished. It can even be laid on in slivers with a hot palette knife and then smoothed and rubbed to a shine.

After two hours, Robin was still not totally satisfied with the work but our applause was heartfelt and his enthusiasm has certainly encouraged us to try abstraction for ourselves.

For further details about the group, contact Sheila Stratton on 01297 45464 or go to www.lymeregisartgroup.org.uk.

Alaska slide show event

THE members of Offwell Women's Institute met for their February meeting in the village hall which is always a good opportunity to meet up with friends and neighbours and enjoy chatting about village and world events.

The president welcomed everyone and outlined coming events. The spring group meeting will be held in Honiton on March 17th with Mary King as the guest speaker. There will be a chilli lunch on March 19th and the spring council meeting will be in Torquay in April.

Birthday posies were presented to Annette, Monica and Margaret.

The speaker was Pam Costain who, assisted by Mike Hounsborne, gave a most interesting talk and slide show of her trip to Alaska. Beautiful pictures of its wild nature with amazing wildlife, fjords, glaciers and mountains had the audience entranced. She met the local people and travelled across practically unmade roads, one through the National Park.

She stayed in lodges and enjoyed watching birds and whales. She was thanked by Monica. Refreshments were prepared and served by Annette and Margaret.

Society learns that the camera can lie after photographer gives members insight at talk

THE Camera Never Lies was the subject of a talk given by Mr Peter Wiles to Axminster Horticultural Society on February 16th.

He started by telling members how the title had come about. When he first moved to Lyme Regis he was assured that it never snowed there but this turned out not to be the case and he took photos of the wintry scenes. These were published in a newspaper with the above caption and so the talks began.

Mr Wiles then showed four photographs to the members and asked which ones they thought had been altered in some way. One was of Abraham Lincoln another of a double decker bus sticking out of a hole in the road the other two were of a wolf jumping a fence and two cups of tea on a tray at Lyme Regis beach.

The outcome was extremely surprising. This was followed by a variety of photographs that had been altered over the years, some going back to World War II. He showed how he had removed his brother-in-law from a photo and then showed some famous pictures that had appeared in the news at various times.

It was interesting to see how they could be manipulated to give the public a different perspective on what had really been photographed originally.

He showed a campaign to try and stop the fashion world from air brushing their photographs to make models look so slim. It was felt that it was having a detrimental effect on the teenagers who wanted to look like the young ladies in the fashion magazines.

He also went on to show how photographs can be made to suit the photographer. One was of a snow covered beach which looked like a summer's afternoon. Members decided that they preferred the original.

Mr Wiles pointed out that we all see things differently. It was a very interesting talk with a different look at the subject and gave everyone food for thought.

The Axminster Horticultural Society will meet again on March 16th at the United Church Hall at 7.30pm. Mr C Yates will give a talk and slide show on Restoring the Victorian Walled Garden.

Themed fun

AT the February meeting on Valentine's Day all members of the Honiton Afternoon Women's Institute had a lovely afternoon making heart-shaped table arrangements helped by Donna of Hillview Floristry.

Members went to Briony Tew's home where a tasty soup with rolls and cake were served.

TONY JACKSON

Big cat debate: reader reports two sightings

MY recent reference to the big cat phenomenon in our area has elicited a reply from a reader, Geoff Wilkins, who tells me that he can report two sightings of a large cat at Danes Hill, Dalwood.

The first was on December 31st 1996 when a large cat jumped out of a hedge and crossed the lane in front of the car (he was, by the way on the way to a Hogmanay party, not returning!) and the second occasion was on the evening of January 31st, this year when, on returning from a meeting in Crewkerne he saw a large cat lying on the wall at the back of his house.

The driver's window was little more than 18 inches from the animal and he could have touched it. The cat jumped from the wall and loped across the drive into the field next door. The cat was described as being the size of a Labrador, with a long tail, a dark ginger in colour and with visible stripes. It ran off at a loping pace, quite unlike that of a domestic cat. At first Geoff and his wife assumed it was the ginger tom from next door, but the animal was at least three times the size of a cat. The mystery continues!

From big cats to tadpoles. Apparently, gardeners across Dorset and doubtless neighbouring counties are reporting large quantities of frog spawn in their garden ponds, and even the smallest pools are being filled up with eggs. I think I must be the only exception, because for the past three years frogs have given my pond the cold shoulder! Not so much as a spoonful of spawn. Hey-ho!

In the past I have brought in spawn from other ponds but now this is apparently taboo. Moving spawn from one site to another can, apparently, spread diseases and invasive plants and it is suggested by the Dorset Wildlife Trust (DWT) that surplus spawn can be composted rather than transferred elsewhere, though personally I would leave it in situ to take its chance.

Sarah Williams, Rivers and Wetlands Conservation Officer at DWT, notes that there is no such thing as too much frog spawn in a pond as only one in 50 of the eggs will become a froglet, with fish, dragonfly larvae and newts all wading in on the froggy feast.

It's a miracle any tadpoles survive to adulthood, as a wide range of predators, from grass snakes to foxes, badgers and herons, crows and other birds all chomp their way through the unfortunate little frogs which leave the ponds for the cover of long grass or bushes in the late summer, only returning when they are three years old to the same pond to breed.

I must say that I miss having frog spawn and can only hope that a froggy will come a wooing my way before too long! This morning, as I write, the pond is iced over after a stiff overnight frost and I wonder how this will have affected the spawn in other areas.

On the bird front there have been good numbers of wigeon and teal at Colyford Common in the company of numerous waders, including 30 black-tailed godwits, while good numbers of lapwings were also seen plus 16 Canada geese, while at sea Donald Campbell spotted 145 scoter and two fulmars from Haven Cliff, and later he saw an otter flush a woodcock in the Undercliff.

Meanwhile, I can only report a dearth of garden birds. We have a dozen sparrow, a couple of wrens, a few blue-tits, blackbirds, robins and occasional goldfinches but little else at the moment. Hopefully, as spring advances more species will appear. Starlings seem to be in very short supply, whilst there is no lack of magpies, unfortunately.

Town needs newcomers

EDITOR — The vitriolic, personal attack on Fred Wells was cowardly in the extreme by someone who lacked the courage to give their name.

To criticise someone for being a newcomer when Axminster Carpets was itself founded and refounded by newcomers is a bit rich.

If only people born in the town were allowed a say on matters that concerned everyone, there would be very few voters.

All towns need an injection of new blood from time to time to bring in fresh ideas and employment and to ensure that this town in particular does not become another fossil on the Jurassic Coast.

The objections to the Cloakham Lawn scheme have nothing to do with the ownership of the land, just the fact that the development is in the wrong place.

It would be on open countryside, on a flood plain and have only one access road. No consideration has been given to where the resident's children will go to school or where the residents will obtain medical care, and their cars will further aggravate the congestion in the town.

The money from the possible sale of land at Cloakham will only be used to keep the carpet factory operating and the concerns of a selfish person, concerned only with their own employment is all too apparent.

Axminsteronian asks: what makes a local?

EDITOR — As an Axminsteronian who was born in Lorretto Road in 1960 I feel fully qualified to respond to the words of the anonymous scribe in your letters of March 1st which made a personal attack on the integrity of my good friend, chamber of commerce colleague and self-made man Fred Wells.

Lets start by getting a few facts correct, shall we? Axminster needs a relief road and Persimmon Homes offered to put one in if it was granted planning permission.

Axminster Carpets has not made such an offer if permitted to build some 400 homes which would generate a minimum of some 400 cars using the often gridlocked Chard Street and send even more pedestrians scuttling for safety at several 'hot spots' within the town.

Fred released his interest in Wells

Carpet Brokers Ltd some five years ago and has lived and worked in Axminster for some 25 years during which time he employed many locals.

He was also chairman of the chamber of commerce for five years and then made an honorary life member in recognition of his service to the business community and the town.

I didn't notice many clambering for the post of chairman when he retired. I think this validates Fred as a very worthy member of our Axminster community.

For what it's worth, Fred has attended one land auction in the last five years although he is at liberty to attend as many as he likes without being subject to assumptions of any sort.

Fred promoted Axminster Carpets by selling their products in his shop which can hardly be classed as making money off the back of their good name.

What pray tell me is a real local? Do we have a stylised form of dress so we can be easily recognised, do our brows meet at a jaunty angle? Perhaps that now I live on Raymonds Hill I should bring my passport with me next time I visit Axminster?

In my opinion such comments from the correspondent relating to real locals probably insults a vast majority of the immediate population who have moved to this beautiful part of Devon.

In the meantime, Fred Wells has my continued admiration and respect for not only being a successful entrepreneur but by being extremely helpful, kind and pleasant at all times.

Deal makes business sense

EDITOR — It was good to see someone actually taking a different point of view with regards to the future development of Cloakham Lawns.

I have also lived in Axminster and nearby All Saints all my life, and yes, I also get fed up with people moving here and then wanting to take over!

Mr Wells talks about Save our Parkland. Unfortunately it has never been our parkland and has always been privately owned originally by the owners of Cloakham House and then by Axminster Carpets Ltd.

I am sure any development on the land will be done sympathetically, and yes although it will be sad to see it developed I am afraid people need houses to live in, hopefully a good amount will be affordable housing for the local young ones.

Over the years Axminster Carpets has purchased several rundown buildings in the town and made them look respectable.

It purchased the Websters (Moto) garage and transformed that into a Showroom and factory outlet, oh I wonder if this is what has annoyed Mr Wells?

It has also developed the Chaffey's site at Abbey Gate and made a new factory outlet and showroom, which has tidied up another entrance to the town creating a good impression to visitors.

Yes I do work for the company and have done so for 35 years, the company has employed many people over its almost 74 years, and is currently giving new jobs to more local young people.

Finally, if I owned the land and could make millions out of developing it I would do the same and so would any prudent businessman.

Name and Address supplied

Would the author join open debate?

EDITOR — I write in response to the cowardly, rude and offensive letter entitled "Stop talking on behalf of locals" from the clearly ill-informed author that you published in your March 1st edition regarding the efforts of Fred Wells and the Save Our Parkland initiative, not to mention the town council, to preserve the land at Cloakham Lawn, although unbelievably it was only Mr Wells who was unfairly targeted by name.

I have been a resident of Axminster for the best part of 30 years and have raised four sons here, making full use of the open parkland in question on a daily basis and was looking forward to treating my grandchildren to the same pleasurable experience.

I wanted to give them the same freedom to enjoy fresh air as well as valuable and healthy exercise, even in the rain and especially in the snow, and all without having to worry about the dangers constantly presented to adults and youngsters alike by the fast cars and heavy lorries that already pass the Cloakham site.

A danger, coincidentally, that will only be increased by the proposed development that does not include a north to south relief road.

I for one, but I also know that many other residents that I speak to feel the same, support Mr Wells and his Save Our Parkland campaign unreservedly.

I also totally support the initiative to preserve what little unspoilt open and accessible green land that we have left in and around Axminster.

Especially as there are plenty of unsightly and dangerous 'brown-sites' available that would provide equal benefit to the town, if developed, thereby creating housing and employment whilst improving rather than destroying the local environment.

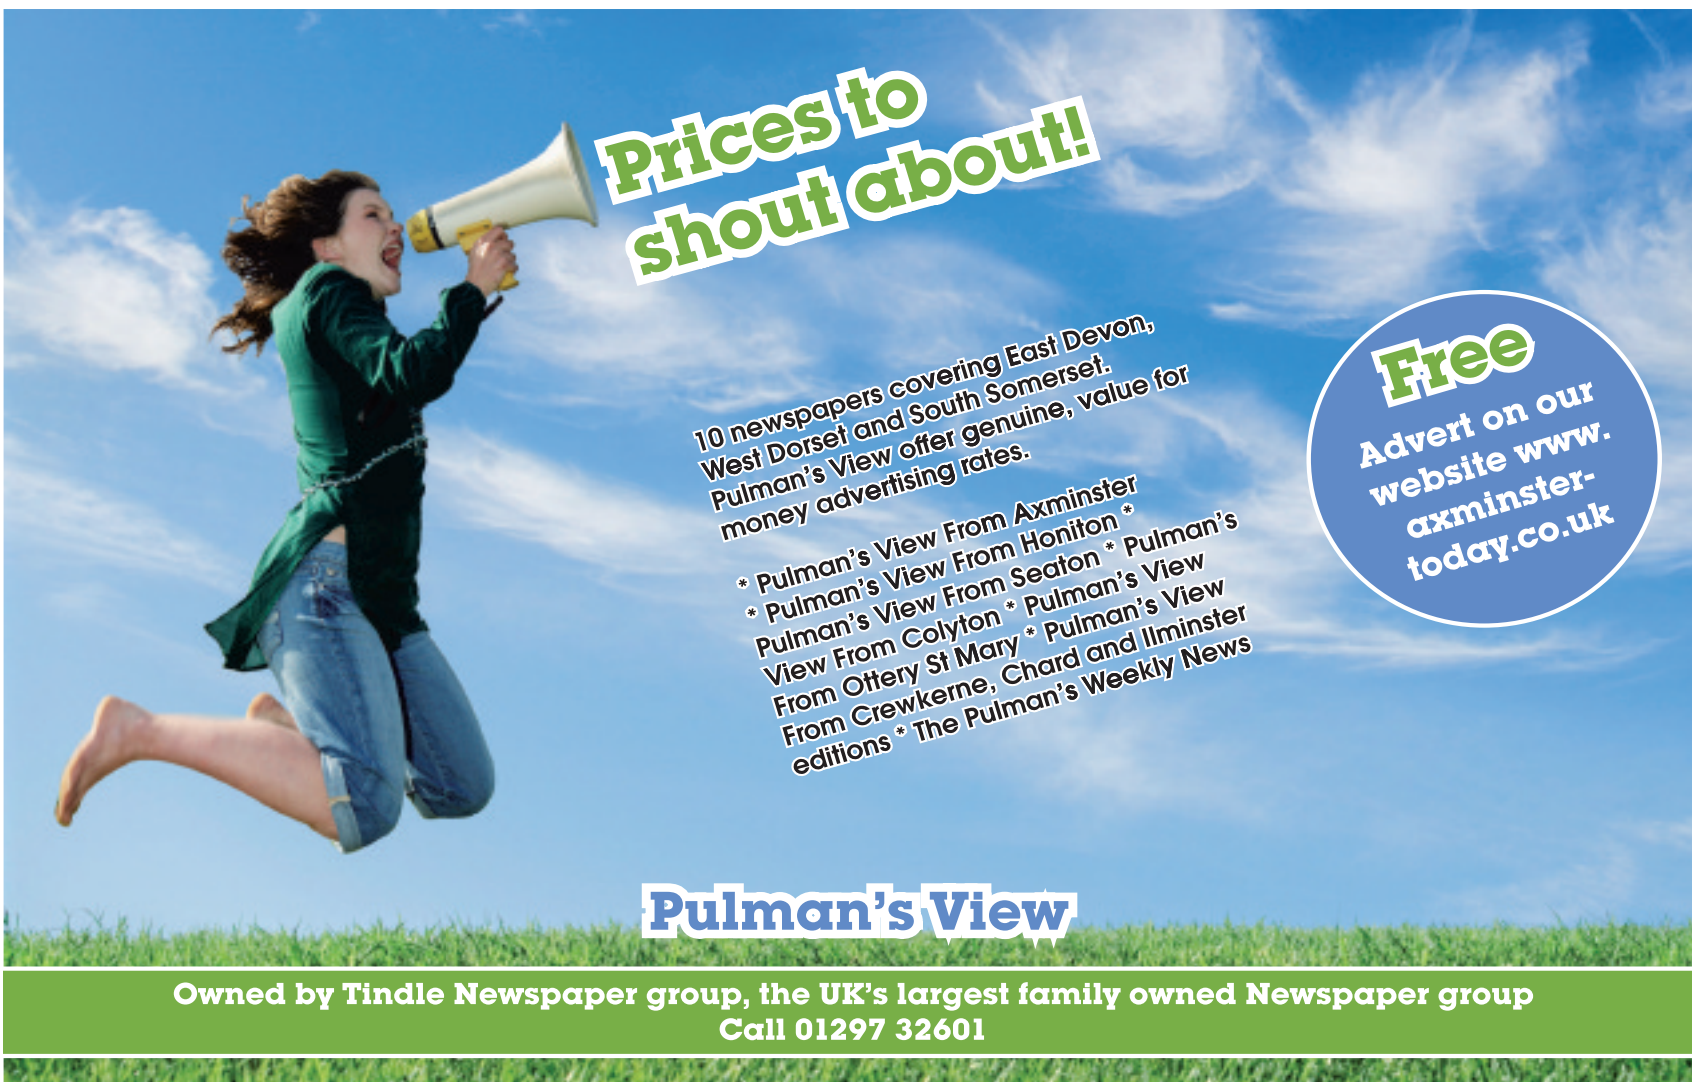

Perhaps, more importantly, by preventing the proposed destruction of our open parkland it will enable us to proudly pass on to the next generation in Axminster.

Residents can then pass on a valuable natural asset for enjoyment rather than selfishly allowing the extension of the concrete jungle and an inheritance of an amplification of all of the existing and unresolved problems of Axminster such as late night behaviour, vandalism, malicious crime, drug abuse, traffic congestion, pollution, inadequate parking, and a lack of amenities — especially for youngsters — along with the numerous other problems that will inevitably ensue if the proposed development goes ahead.

Perhaps the cowardly "name and address supplied" would like to identify themselves and join an open debate — as is everyone's right — instead of hiding behind the curtains.

The slur by an anonymous writer on Mr Wells's character is abominable, undeserved and totally unnecessary in a civilised society.

From little acorns...

...great oaks grow

Calm, stimulating and inspirational environment!

Shute Little Acorns Pre-school is based within Shute Community Primary School, set among the beautiful countryside; the rural location offers a calm, stimulating and inspirational environment.

The team of four highly qualified staff show obvious pride and enthusiasm for what they have to offer at this setting. Their energy, dedication and commitment make it the fun and safe place that it is. They take only 12 children each session, which means they are able to offer a more personalised learning experience for each individual child. This is just part of what makes Shute Little Acorns the special place that it is.

The pre-school is little known to the wider community. Its small size certainly doesn't mean it is not busy — far from it in fact. These youngsters, from two-and-a-half up to rising five, get to do all sorts of exciting activities inside and out to keep them entertained and learning.

They have regular visits to The Donkey Sanctuary at Sidmouth, a trip to

Miller's Farm Shop in Kilminster to learn about how fruit and vegetables are grown, they have football training, an outdoor classroom where lots of their letter and sound activities take place and with Shute Woods right on their doorstep, they are able to go on walks during the year to look at the differences through the seasons and hunt for bugs... to name a few!

An ongoing project is a 'gingerbread man' postcard initiative which helps the little ones learn about travel.

Amanda said: "We are very community-minded but the gingerbread man was to show the children that there is a big, wide world out there too."

This place is a little-known gem and should be praised very highly. Most children who go do tend to go on to Shute Primary School, but it is not compulsory.

So if you would like to see the pre-school in action, please give our play leader Amanda Deam a call to arrange an appointment or alternatively come along to our OPEN DAY on TUESDAY 15TH MARCH 9:30 – 2:30. Telephone 01297 33348.

Beauty show is a total success

By KEVIN FAHEY

AUDREY Tims believes that the success of Sleeping Beauty shows that there is a bright future ahead for Beer Panto People (BPP).

The director said that the latest production attracted almost 500 people over three nights to the Mariners Hall in the seaside village and feedback had been very encouraging.

Audrey said: "I think in the current economic climate the audiences we had were very good and those people that came along were very responsive. I thought the cast were brilliant and I could not have asked for any more. Likewise the many people who worked off stage were first class and without them this production couldn't have gone ahead."

Audrey has been involved with the BPP for the past 23 years, both starring on the stage and directing, so she was particularly encouraged with the new additions to the cast.

She added: "It was great to see new people come along like Graham Jagger, Chris Singleton, Becky Sims and Karly Buckley and do so well."

"We also had two cast members. Leisha and George Clist, who came over from Hemyock and they said they enjoyed it so much they'll be back again."

Andy Williams, better known as head chef and patron of Steamers restaurant though his love of acting is clear, once again relished the role of the traditional panto 'baddie' and said that the input of Tims couldn't be under-estimated.

Safely back in the kitchen having hosted the final show party, he said: "Audrey is Beer Panto People and she puts in an amazing amount of time into the production."

A special mention should also go to scenery manager Andrew Perkins for transforming the stage with his wonderful sets and likewise his wife and costume manager Christine Perkins worked tirelessly with her team.

Audrey said: "I can look back now and feel very satisfied with what we did this year."

"I think it was a very successful production and once again I have to thank everyone involved. They did a fantastic job."

Audrey didn't rule out staying at the helm again for the 2012 production but said ultimately it was the members of the BPP who would make that decision when the annual meeting is held. I think we are pencilling in Sunday March 27th when everyone can give their view on what we should be doing next year.

THEATRE

JOURNEY'S End, the multi award-winning production that won critical acclaim in the West End and on Broadway, is to tour in 2011.

This Olivier-nominated, Tony and Drama Desk award winning production of R C Sheriff's masterpiece, directed by David Grindley, will be at the Theatre Royal from Monday, March 21st to Saturday, March 26th.

The production originally opened at the Comedy Theatre in January 2004 and was an immediate revelation.

Taking audiences by surprise with its beautifully understated evocation of war, Journey's End won unanimous critical acclaim.

The play is set in the British trenches at St Quentin in 1918, in the days leading up to Operation Michael on March 21st, the last great German Offensive of the First World War, a day that saw the deaths of 38,000 men. A company of officers prepare for a daring raid across No Man's Land to gather intelligence.

Based on the author's own experience of the Front and life in the trenches, it celebrates humour and courage in the face of certain tragedy, and remains an important reminder of the horrors of war and the real, unromanticised heroes who fought it.

Journey's End is directed by David Grindley and is designed by Jonathan Fensom, with lighting by Jason Taylor and sound by Gregory Clarke.

OUT & ABOUT

● WELLS Cathedral School Chamber Choir will give a concert in St Andrew's Church, Colyton, on Saturday March 12th, starting at 7.30pm.

Their conductor, Nigel Perrin, was a choral scholar at King's College, Cambridge.

For 11 years he travelled the world with this famous ensemble giving live performances, recording some 25 albums and appearing in countless television shows with artists as diverse as Kiri de Kanawa and Cliff Richard.

His work now includes teaching at Wells Cathedral School and conducting its choir — regarded as one of Britain's leading amateur choirs.

They have already visited Colyton on two occasions, wowing their audiences with exciting programmes and truly remarkable performances.

No allowances need ever be made on account of their youth (the age range is 15 – 18): they proved on both occasions that solid technique, fine musicianship and the exuberance of youth are the best raw materials an inspired conductor can ask for.

Tickets are £9 on the door; under-18s free.

● BUSTING Out! is back. Following its hugely successful Edinburgh Fringe season and subsequent tour of the UK last year, the hilarious Australian show that puts women's assets at centre stage will be baring all again at the Theatre Royal, Plymouth on Wednesday, March 30th.

Writer and performer Emma Powell, plus comedienne Bev Killick are returning for a second UK tour and this time they are bringing a bosom buddy, the hugely talented Yorkshire lass, Mandi Lodge.

For more information or to book tickets contact box office on 01752 230447 or online at www.theatreroyal.com.

ALL CREATURES SMALL AND BIG

COMPUTER-animated heroes come in all shapes and sizes.

A tiny clownfish called Nemo, a weedy Viking boy called Hiccup and a flatulent green ogre called Shrek overcame seemingly insurmountable odds to become unlikely masters of their destiny.

The underlying message of these films is clear: all creatures can achieve greatness with hard work, courage and a pinch of good luck.

Director Gore Verbinski lassos this heart-warming sentiment and corrals it to the Wild West for a rootin' tootin' adventure in the company of a comic chameleon.

Rango is an amusing romp and John Logan's script is peppered with earthy one-liners that should have parents and teenagers chuckling in the aisles.

However, families who are prospecting for box office gold should beware: Verbinski's film doesn't cater for young viewers.

There's no slapstick, almost no cuddly critters and the tone is rather dark, whether it be an armadillo called Roadkill, whose middle section is squished by a tyre on the highway, or the image of several varmints with nooses around their necks, preparing to fall from the gallows.

A lonely chameleon, voiced by Johnny Depp, is stranded in the Mojave Desert, where he meets a desert iguana called Beans.

She takes him to the town of Dirt, which is on the brink of collapse because the water supply is running dangerously low.

Wandering into the saloon, the chameleon re-christens himself Rango and pretends to be a famous gunslinger, who killed several critters with a single bullet.

The townsfolk are thrilled to have found themselves a hero and Rango becomes the town sheriff, who must protect the locals from predators including Rattlesnake Jake.

A mouse called Priscilla believes that Rango will find water and save the community from extinction.

"That's the great law of the desert: control the water and you control everything," explains the Mayor, who rules the roost with his henchman Bad Bill.

So the chameleon sets out to discover why the water supply has dried up: "I'm going to strip away this mystery and expose its private parts."

Rango is a feast for the eyes.

The animation is immaculate, right down to tiny details such as the way the characters' fur moves in the desert wind or the glint of tears in their eyes.

Set pieces are breathlessly orchestrated including an opening sequence on the highway that sees the hapless hero ricochet at breakneck speed between moving vehicles.

Depp plies his usual verbal schtick as the insecure lizard with theatrical ambitions and co-stars deliver lively vocal performances including Winstone as the hard man who promises one terrified victim, "If I see you in this town again, I'm going to slice off your face and use it to wipe my unmentionables."

Yee ha ha.

EAST DEVON SHORT MAT BOWLS

IT was all home wins this week. The Afternoon Division One saw three teams each gain two places. Upton, 6-2, are now second, St Teresa's, also 6-2, are now fourth and Colyton, 5-3, move to eighth.

In Division Two Hemyock won 8-0 to move up four places and now hold the second promotion place.

Sidford hosted twice, and enjoyed two 6-2 wins but the shot difference means that while the "B" team moved up two places to fifth the "A" team drop one place to seventh. The "A" team however do have a game in hand.

In the knock-out Sidford won 7-1 but their guests, Hemyock, progress with the better aggregate over the two legs. Hemyock will now face Awliscombe "A".

KARATE

A MARTIAL arts enthusiast from Colyton achieved a top eight finish in the Amateur Martial Association Karate Championships.

The championships were held in Sheffield on Saturday, February 26th and Steven White made it to the final of the Veterans' Kata category.

Kata does not involve fighting an opponent, but sees a number of participants performing a series of precision moves.

The 47-year-old brown belt was the lowest grade in his category, but made it to the last mat of eight from a starting field of more than 80.

About being the lowest grade in the category, he said: "I knew I was up against it from the start."

There is one judge at each corner of the mat, who can award a maximum of 8.2 points each.

In the final, Steven achieved 7.9, 7.9, 7.9 and 8.0. It wasn't enough for a top three finish - the winner scoring 8.2 throughout — but Steven was very pleased.

JUNIOR BADMINTON

JUNIOR badminton players from clubs at Sidmouth, Colyton and Honiton came together for an afternoon of play at Colyton Sports Centre over half-term.

Stephen Pritchard, from local company gingerscoaching, ran the event to provide a competitive opportunity to young players who receive coaching locally but don't get many chances to put their skills into action in the competitive arena.

He said: "I've realised that junior clubs — mine included — spend a lot of time coaching young players without always giving them the chance to use these skills."

"If players aren't in the county squad, the nearest appropriate level tournaments are run in Taunton."

"I hope to simply provide the chance to play badminton competitively, against new opponents, without travelling too far."

"Tactical awareness is a key element in aiding progression into adult badminton clubs."

Stephen, a former badminton development officer for Somerset, runs junior clubs at Colyton and Honiton, and assists Jane Sharp at Sidmouth.

If anyone is interested in taking up badminton, they can call him on 07989 978618 to find out further information.

HONITON HORNETS HOCKEY

Honiton 1
Ottery 2nds 1

HONITON and Ottery were both technically at home this weekend with Ottery St Mary the venue for this local derby.

The game started with Ottery attacking from the outset and Honiton, yet to settle, gave away a short corner in the opening minutes of the game. Ottery took their chance and slotted a goal along the inside of the post. Honiton took their time to settle into their own game with some great balls from Becky Hammett and Amy Phillips going off the back line without a Honiton player getting on the end of them.

In the end a well worked Honiton attack resulted in a penalty corner opportunity. Jean Herniman passed the ball out to Sophie George who took a straight strike at goal.

The Ottery goalkeeper made a great save and Jean managed to stop the ball on the back line and push it back across the goal line in front of the keeper where Dawn Mayo pushed it over the line.

Honiton continued to attack towards the end of the first half and managed to get their passing game moving eventually.

In the second half Jean Herniman again took the ball to the back line and made a great pass but nobody was able to take it over the line and the ball ran wide. In the end the scores remained level. Both teams had their chance to win the game but neither was able to do so.

Players of the match were Amy Phillips and Emily Gawler who had a great game marking out one of Ottery's more threatening attackers.

SEATON CRIB

THE King's Arms and the Royal Clarence met for the league play-off last Thursday.

It was the first time that two teams had tied for the league title.

Pat and Julie Nields of PJ's Club had agreed to host the needle match, as it had to be held on neutral ground.

The Kings Arms started well winning the first three matches. It was certainly not the Royal Clarence's night as the cards continued to be against them. The final score was The Kings Arms 7, Royal Clarence 2.

It was a really enjoyable evening, finishing off with some very welcome refreshments. The King's Arms will be presented with the trophy at the presentation evening on Thursday, April 14th at PJ's.

AXE VALLEY PEDALLERS

AXE Valley Pedallers was one of six Devon clubs that came together for a track session at Newport Velodrome.

Alistair said: "The 250 meter Siberian pine track provides a fantastic facility to train regardless of the weather."

AXE CLIFF GOLF CLUB

THE main club competed this Sunday in very blustery conditions for round eight of the Winter League.

The winners, with 46 points, were D Quinn and D Hales. Second with 42 points (22 on the back 9) were P Northcott and J Matthews. In third place also with 42 points (21 back 9) were C Helliier and A Helliier.

Seniors' Section

On Friday it was the second last round of the Seniors' Winter League Programme and the scores were really impressive considering the strength of the south west wind. Only one stroke separated the top four teams but John Mant (18) and Jack Bannister (27) edged in front to win with 37 points. The other three all scored 36 points with second place going to Chris Jowett (16) and Alan Vincent (20) on countback.

Rob Grove (16) and Bryan Dale (22), the holders of the shield took third place and with one round to go are in a commanding position to win again. The team to miss out on the top three positions was Malcolm Glass (18) and Iain Bain (14).

Ladies' Section

The Ladies played a nine hole Stableford Competition last Wednesday. The winner was Hazel Williamson (24) one point ahead of Sandra Walker (16) and Di Rogers (30).

Sun Am Winter League

THE last of the Sun Am league games were played to decide the final eight teams that would battle out the head to head knock-out stages.

There were still some games that could affect their league's outcomes but as the last matches came in it was obvious that the eventual winners had put the work in right through the winter and not just on the last Sunday. As to who might eventually go on and take the trophy, a safe bet would be Cleal and Wallis.

A very canny, knowledgeable pair who back each other up all round the course. They can only get better too as we move into spring weather and better greens. But well done to all the pairings who have made it to the quarter finals in a fortnight's time.

Tuesday Mixed

Although very cold, 22 members enjoyed the drier conditions on the course for this week's mixed competition.

The format was Ryesomes Stableford over 18 holes. The winning pair scoring 36 points were Dot Grove and Jason Gosling. Second place were Jackie and Allan Seager with 32 points on countback from Sue Ritchie and Mike Watts.

Ladies Section

At long last the sun came out for the March medal when 37 ladies celebrated by bringing in some very good scores.

Silver division winner was Henrietta Bradshaw with a score of 73 and second place went to Jane Watts with 76.

In Bronze One division Gill Johnson scored 76 with Rosemary Greenhorn coming in second with 78, and in Bronze Two division Sharon Dacre romped home with a remarkable 67 in front of Majson Stroud with 75.

It just goes to show that if the weather can bring in the sun the ladies can bring home the bacon.

Senior Section

With all temporary greens and frozen ground in this week's Stableford competition the bounce of the ball was somewhat unpredictable. It was Norman Ede who skated round and demolished the field with a whopping score of 45 points.

Not content with that he scored a two on the par four third hole to record one of only two twos on the day and received 36 golf balls.

Vic Wood made a valiant effort with 39 points which earned second place followed by Mike Stroud and Bill Spice on 37.

Dave Maggs secured the final prize on count back in Division One with 36 points.

Division Two was a closer affair with Ray Cross finding the conditions to his liking and winning with 35 points. David Price, Ken Beake and Ron Moss were next all with 33 points and David Beer completed the prizewinning place with 32 points.

Grizzly gets boggy

THE 24th running of the Grizzly and Cub runs start together on Seaton Esplanade at 10.30am on Sunday, March 13th — this year subtitled Valley of the Bogs for obvious reasons — and they remain one of the toughest multi-terrain challenges a runner is likely to come across.

The Grizzly will finish at the same location from about 12.50pm, while the shorter 8.5-mile Cub Run, which is run over part of the main course, will finish from about 11.30am.

The race remains as popular as ever with nearly 2,278 entrants in the Grizzly and 278 in the Cub, plus for the first time there will be two Junior Grizzly runs on Saturday afternoon with 35 entries in the longer 4k and 71 in the shorter 2k. The headquarters this year will be at Seaton Social Club.

The Grizzly course is 20 miles of very tough running, around and through some of the best scenery in the country, with lots of hills, at least three bogs, plus three stretches of undulating pebble beach.

It is deliberately changed for each race and this year after a small loop around Seaton beach the runners will go over to Beer Down Long Hill and Fore Street, then up Common Lane, through the car park and caravan site to the top, turning left onto the common. After that it's onwards to Branscombe Mouth.

The Grizzly will go to the village hall, up to Hole and then will go into private land where the delightful bogs, scenic forests and deep muddy fields await.

It's then back to Hole and over to the Fountain Head. The run will return along the coast path to the Sea Shanty, along the beach to the hooken footpath and up to Beer Common and Beer, eventually returning to Seaton by way of the coastal path. For a map of the run go to www.mapmyrun.com/routes/view/26460658.

The best spectator vantage points will be at Seaton seafront (start and finish times), Beer's Fore Street (two-and-a-half miles), Beer Common (three and 18 miles), the Sea Shanty at Branscombe Mouth (five and 16 miles), Branscombe Village Hall (six miles), the Fountain Head Branscombe (15 miles) and Beer Cliff Top and Jubilee Gardens (18.5 miles).

Spectators are advised to bear in mind that the byways around Branscombe will be very congested, so to park sensibly at correct locations, not in the lanes. Much of the middle part of the course, including the bogs, is on private land and therefore inaccessible to spectators.

There may well be traffic delays at Fore Street, Beer, between 10.45am and 11.10am. (Common Lane will be closed during the event, so delays will occur near the Anchor until 3.30pm), Branscombe Village Hall 11.10am to 12.10pm, Northern Lane from Hole Pits to the village from 11.15am to 2.30pm and the Fountain Head 12noon to 3pm, for which Grizzly organisers sincerely apologise.

Those planning to visit the Masons Arms for lunch from the Sidmouth direction, should keep to the A3052 and turn right just before the Beer turning. Locksey's Lane at Branscombe will be closed to non-residents during the race. The Esplanade at Seaton is closed all day on Sunday and also on Saturday afternoon for the junior races.

The main race sponsor is the shoe manufacturer Saucony and its multi-terrain running shoe. Other race sponsors are Everys Solicitors, East Devon District Council for car parking, For Goodness Shakes milkshakes, Honeybuns flapjacks, Ironbridge Runner, James Pyne Event Photography, RBS Scaffolding, Tesco for Fair Trade bananas, The Grove Niteclub, Rainbow Superstores, Sweet Heaven, Seaton, The Sweet Shop, Axminster, and Quicks Engineering, Axminster.

Only third placed Alistair Bristow (715) of the top three from last year's Grizzly is running, but Neil Holmes (255) a previous winner is having another go.

In the ladies' race last year's winner Lizzie Kendon (1449), second placed Maree Jesson and third placed Lin Lascelles (835) are running again.

Benfleet Running Club is bringing the biggest team with 65 runners, East Essex Tri Club has 43 and the "Valley Of The Bogs"

Women's Running Network 39. From Holland, AV-Units (near Maastricht) has 17. Despite being the host club, locally, Axe Valley Runners has the most Grizzly runners with 30, Sidmouth Running Club 22, Exmouth Harriers and Honiton Running Club 15.

Iva Barr, of Bedford Harriers, has the honour of being the oldest runner; she won't see her 80th birthday again. Benfleet Running Club's Ken Eaton is the oldest cub runner at 80 years young.

At the other end of the scale there are six 18-year-olds competing in the Grizzly, the youngest being Tom Edwards from Teign Valley Harriers.

The Grizzly raises funds for many charities; this year there is no main beneficiary but the many local groups who supply the Drinks Station helpers and marshals will each be given a donation. Around £183,000 has been given away over the life of the Grizzly.

The race is a massive community effort, with nearly 500 marshals and helpers required on the day. Axe Valley Runners is indebted to all these people, plus the sponsors, local organisations, landowners and residents of east Devon, for without their support the Grizzly would not be the prestigious sporting event it has now become.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

AXE Valley Runners' husband and wife team, Gill and Jon Day, had a cold and fast day when doing Sunday's Bideford Half Marathon.

They were repeatedly told that it was a fast course and they discovered this was quite correct as Gill not only beat her personal best, but smashed it by 15 minutes, taking 2.17.01 to complete and finishing 962nd out of 1054.

Jon was hoping for a sub 1:30 time and was delighted to complete the race in 1.26.24, finishing 83rd overall and improving his personal best by five minutes.

Both were really pleased with their mornings efforts.

On Sunday Morning Luke Reed competed in the 30th running of the Bath Half Marathon.

Luke was very pleased with his time, finishing 165th out of 9,713 in 1.21.37, which is about three-and-a-half minutes quicker than in 2009. Former Axe Valley star Paul Holley also ran, finishing 52nd in 1.13.44, his fastest time for four years.

Not many runners could be hit by a camper van and then go on to become a triple medallist — all in the same race.

However, this is exactly what happened to Harry Moore at Sunday's Combe St Nicholas 10 K.

After the first fairly flat four kilometres, the undulations began and Harry was in the last narrow uphill lane with an impatient camper van driver revving behind.

As the van squeezed past it bumped into Harry, who after shaking his fist at the disappearing vehicle, carried on racing regardless.

He finished in 97:13. After a careful examination by a doctor who gave him a clean bill of health, Harry was awarded three medals.

The first was for running the race, the second for Most Senior Competitor and the third for Combe St Nicholas Spirit of the Day.

This was Harry's third race of the year and he is hoping to compete in the Grizzly Cub run next Sunday.

Dave Kelf took part in the adidas Silverstone Half-Marathon on the famous racing track on Sunday, March 6th.

The 15,000 runners seemed to be going everywhere round the convoluted track, so Dave found it difficult to tell if they were in front or behind. This confusion didn't deter him from zooming around without a pit stop to reach the chequered flag in 1hr 48 min.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

THE Bideford Half Marathon is also known as the 'Swift Half' as it is an ideal course for obtaining a personal best time.

The first half is slightly undulating, taking in magnificent countryside alongside the River Torridge between Bideford and Great Torrington.

The second half is pancake flat following the Tarka Trail along the old railway line. Personal bests were in abundance amongst Honiton Running Club members which was helped with the dry, cool and still conditions.

There was an entry list of over 1,200. Pipes and drums, buskers and Bideford Phoenix Morris Dancers brought a carnival atmosphere to the event and for those runners needing a little TLC after the race the Bideford Wellbeing Centre generously offered free leg massages.

Honiton results: 236th Roger Saunders 1:36:36, 239th Julie Payne 1:37:05, 424th Nick Bradley-Carter

1:45:39, 436th Dan Brown 1:46:10, 443rd Warren Oak 1:46:19, 582nd Nick Thorpe 1:51:28, 614th Denis Costello 1:52:56, 842nd Alan Rowe 2:04:39, 861st Gerry Evans 2:06:03, 869th Jackie Costello 2:07:11 and 908th Jo Jo Davey 2:10:15

Meanwhile, John Burgess and Vernon Gillard went over to Combe St Nicholas to do a 10k run. The event is put on by the primary school and there was a fun run too.

Neither John nor Vernon had taken part in it before and were taken by surprise with the level of ascents and descents.

Runners climb about 150ft in stages from the start then there is 400ft of downhill for about two miles which is nice but then runners pay for that with a steep ascent and then a climb back into the village.

John was pleased with his finishing time of 51:14. Vernon is not at his fittest so he was also pleased with his time of 47:23 for this hilly course.

Runners encouraged to sign up for all-terrain hippo

RUNNERS are encouraged to sign up for Honiton Running Club's adventurous all-terrain seven-mile running race, Honiton Hippo.

The race date is Sunday, April 10th with a 10.30am start — and there is also a 1.75-mile multi-terrain junior race (minimum age nine years).

Prizes and a memento for all participants are promised, plus the obligatory cakes and refreshments.

Further information, details and an entry form are available on Honiton Running Club's website at www.honitonrc.com.

AXMOUTH UNITED

ON a day when Axmouth needed a win to maintain top spot they produced a lacklustre and lifeless display in total contrast to recent home form.

Although starting fairly brightly and with a couple of half chances in the opening 10 minutes it was East Budleigh that looked the higher placed of the two teams showing more determination and quicker in all areas.

On 16 minutes they should have led but for a fine double save from keeper Smart, firstly getting down low to his left to stop a fierce drive then reacting quickly to stop the follow up effort at close range.

In a very tight half of few chances the visitors remained on top but clear scoring chances for either side were scarce and it seemed the sides were destined to go in goalless until a disastrous defensive mix up in the 40th minute, allowed a Budleigh striker to flick home following a through ball that the home defender and keeper seemed sure to have covered between them but hesitation allowed him to nip in and find the empty net to give his side a 1-0 lead at the break.

A wake up message was duly delivered at the half time interval and the home side certainly improved after the break and duly dominated the second 45 minutes with Budleigh setting up a 10 man blockade to hold out for a mirror image victory as Axmouth had won 1-0 their earlier in the season.

Despite much possession and playing mostly in the visitors half Axmouth created only half chances but could not find the killer pass or finish.

Near misses from Aykroyd, Berry (twice) and Reynolds all went begging as the visitors defended in numbers. In the last minute a free kick was sent in perfectly to the head of on rushing Christian Burrige only to see his effort crash back off the bar to safety and so sealing the home sides fate.

This was an untypically poor display from Axmouth who have been so dominant and free scoring at home and they will certainly need to improve in coming games to fulfil all the promise shown and achieve a high placing and challenge for honours.

DEVON AND EXETER LEAGUE

Leaders Seaton Town won their first game away from home since November with a 4-0 victory at Willand Reserves.

All the goals came in the first half, and then Seaton were happy to see the match through.

Ben Ede, Ollie Highett, Alex Wheatley and Robbie Fellingham scored for Seaton.

Beer Albion were almost home and dry against the University Reserves, but the College then nabbed a late equaliser for a 1-1 draw. Pedro Fontes scored for the fishermen midway through the second half.

Morchard Bishop edged nearer to the Division 1 title with a tough 3-2 win at Feniton.

Wills Elsworth, Emlyn Harris and Jonathan Bradford scored for Morchard. A slightly disappointed Feniton replied through Paul Dowling and Charlie Selley.

The Phoenix Club who have lost six points because of the Royal Marines withdrawal in Division 2, came from a goal down to beat Colyton 5-1.

Rian Antat equalised and was the Phoenix man of the match after that.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE ROUND-UP

MANAGER'S PRAISE FOR COMBE AS THEY ACHIEVE CUP FINAL

Fussell pleased at extra time win over South Petherton

By KEVIN FAHEY

sport.pulmans@tindlenews.co.uk

COMBE St Nicholas manager Ashley Fussell has praised his players after they beat South Petherton in extra time to reach the final of the Challenge Cup.

Steve Every's close range strike five minutes into the second period of extra time finally broke the deadlock against their visitors, who are top of the Premier Division with 11 straight victories, and clinch a spot in the final against Beaminster.

"It was a really tight game but I think we just about deserved to win it," said Fussell.

"We hassled them and got under their noses and it seemed to work.

The players were terrific and now we are into the final but the main objective is to ensure we stay in this league."

Fussell also picked out centre half Neil Parsons for an outstanding display at the back.

Beaminster eased their way into the final with a 5-0 defeat of Perry Street with goals from Richard Runyard (penalty), Tom Fletcher, Josh Baker and two from Murray Legg.

Crewkerne Town Reserves reached the final of the Billy Bailey Cup, in which they will face Misterton, with a thrilling 3-2 win at Winsham United Reserves with Justin Sweet's winner coming in the final minute.

"It was a real goalmouth scramble following a corner, the ball was bobbling around the box before Justin poked it in for the winner," said manager Ben Cox. "It was a hard-fought game."

Matthew Bizgrove and man-of-the-match Richard Crabb were Crewkerne's other scorers.

It was a good day for Combe St Nicholas as their B team reached the final of the Kenny Hodges Cup after beating Ilminster Town A 5-2 with two goals from Brad Cleall and further strikes from Kevin Ford, Graham Cleall and Dan Fry.

Back to league business and Millwey Rise rose to third in Division One after hammering rivals Netherbury 6-0 with Adam Whitehouse grabbing a hat-trick.

"I thought we were unplayable on Saturday," said delighted Millwey boss Shane Featherstone.

"And if we win our game in hand we will go joint top with Crewkerne."

Sam Dibbling, John Vaughan and Nathan Womersley were the other Millwey scorers.

Also in Division One Lyme Regis Reserves inflicted only a second league defeat of the season for Winsham with a 3-1 win.

There was a double from Jason Hawker after an opener from Jack Durrant.

In the Premier Division Matt Reed, Ernie Stobb, James Salter and Scott Burrough scored in Farway United's 4-1 win over bottom club West and Middle Chinnock.

Shepton Beauchamp climbed to the top of Division Two with a 2-0 win over Pymore thanks to goals from Tommy Brister and Sam Murley.

TIGERS manager Nick Ogden will demand that his players start future games better after being caught cold in this clash.

"I'll tell the players they need to start playing at 3pm and not 3.30pm or 3.40 if we want to start winning games," said Ogden.

"It is so important for us at the moment to score that first goal because confidence, while a lot better than it was, is still a bit fragile."

For the Students' it was their fourth successive win with goals from Tom Nielson, Chris Henshall (penalty) and Dan Sandell.

"The scoreline wasn't a true reflection of the game," added Ogden.

SOUTH WEST PENINSULA — OTTERY ST MARY FC

Division One East
Bickleigh 2 Ottery St Mary 2

THE Otters twice relinquished the lead as a valuable away win against a team just below them slipped from their grasp.

Dane Bunney's side took the lead in the tenth minute with a fine header from Bradley Cole only for Lee Woodman to equaliser on the half hour mark.

Nonetheless, Ottery restored their lead to end the half on top when Mike Burke unleashed a powerful header from Lance Easton's pinpoint cross.

The Otters dug in during the second half and were defending well until Jordan Copp clinched a 75th minute equaliser.

COLYTON FC

Spirited first half but disappointing second

Devon and Exeter League
Division 2
Colyton 1
Phoenix Club 5

COLYTON showed spirit, belief and determination on Saturday to produce 40 minutes of first-half football of league-winning standard.

The previous week's embarrassing performance, also against Phoenix, was forgotten as Coly completely dominated the first period.

During this very impressive period of play it was difficult to go through the side and think of a player who didn't perform to his maximum.

Coly's goal arrived in the 12th minute, Nathan Maddocks smashing home the ball at the far post for a well-deserved lead.

Coly had several chances to increase the lead — on 20 minutes a superb cross-field pass from man of the match George Moore found Richard Tratt. He controlled the ball with his first touch and then sent an inviting ball firmly across the face of the goal to strike partner Callum Somers. But the Phoenix keeper was on hand to bravely save the ball at Somers's feet.

Some 10 minutes later another ball from Moore found Tratt, but once again, the Phoenix keeper was on hand to push Tratt's powerful strike around the upright. Probably the best chance came with 10 minutes remaining — Somers receiving the ball unmarked some five yards from goal, unfortunately his control was wayward and was harshly penalised for hand ball.

Phoenix, the best team in the league, had been restricted to long range efforts and had spent the entire half trying to chase the ball to no avail as Coly were first to everything.

On 42 minutes a bad error by centre-half Gary May presented a simple equaliser for the Phoenix striker. This goal completely flattened Coly and Phoenix ran riot for the five remaining minutes and could have scored more if Duane Gay had not made two smart stops in the Coly goal.

Colyton had put everything into the first period but the disappointment of conceding the goal was plainly evident and Phoenix came out all guns blazing and went for broke.

Within 10 minutes they were 3-1 up and there was no way back for a Colyton side sadly lacking in fitness.

Phoenix continued to dominate and added two further goals. There was time for Colyton to respond and, to their credit, produced some much better football in the closing 10 minutes with Vince Foxwell and Paul Millman both unlucky not to score.

The first half performance for Colyton was a cautious and considered approach which needs to be developed and turned into league points.

UPLYME KNOCK OUT FAVOURITES

Manager Coombes delighted with sensational result

By KEVIN FAHEY
 sport.pulmans@indlenews.co.uk

Tommy Tabberer Cup quarter finals
Uplyme 4
Beaminster Reserves 1

UPLYME now have the final of the Tommy Tabberer Cup in their sights after producing their best result of the season to knock out cup favourites Beaminster Reserves.

Uplyme earned themselves a trip to Chard Rangers in the semi finals on Saturday week (March 19th) after brushing aside their Perry Street League Division Two rivals with a sparkling display that left manager Rob Coombes delighted.

"It was our best performance of the season it was a sensational result for us," said Coombes. "We just outplayed them and produced some excellent football."

Uplyme got off to a great start when they were awarded a penalty after ten minutes when Alex Cottle was brought down. Club chairman Gavin Fowler stepped up to slot home the spot kick.

Fowler then struck again from open play to make it 2-0 at half time and any hopes Beaminster might have had of getting back into the match were ended three minutes into the re-start when Uplyme were handed a second penalty after a foul on Adam Neale.

"But Gavin didn't want to take this one as he thought their goalkeeper would know which way he would go so Stuart King stepped up and scored.

That was the killer blow for us," added Coombes.

James Beddows made it 4-0 just after the hour and while Beaminster got one back it was no more than a consolation on a great day for the home club.

"Three or four weeks ago they beat us 5-0 in a league match and that was still fresh in our minds but on Saturday the boys just wanted it more," explained Coombes.

"This is the big cup competition for us and we would love to make the final as it is being staged at Lyme Regis' ground but first we have to take on Chard Rangers and that won't be easy.

"We might be favourites on paper but they have been picking up some good results recently so it will be tough."
